March 2012

March 21-25
Dallas Convention Center

Every year, automakers unveil vehicles with innovative designs, cutting edge technological advancements, increased safety features and improved performance.

And what better venue to peruse the hundreds of models that are in dealerships now and those that are bound for showrooms in the near future than the 2012 DFW Auto Show in Dallas, March 21-25 at the Dallas Convention Center.

The DFW Auto Show will join forces with the North Texas Food Bank for "Fuel Up North Texas". On Saturday, visitors are encouraged to donate one can of food for a $2 discount off of a $12 admission. According to the North Texas Food Bank, items most needed include: peanut butter, tuna, beans and canned ham.

Hours of the show are: 4 to 10 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, March 21 and 22; 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Friday and Saturday, March 23 and 24; and 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday, March 25. Tickets are $12 for adults, $5 for senior citizens 65 and older, and children 12 and under are admitted free. $1 discount coupons are available at participating franchised new car dealerships. For more information, visit dallasautoshow.com.

March 2-4
Fair Park

The largest celebration of Irish culture in the southwest, the 30th Annual North Texas Irish Festival makes its return with a "Céilí" ("gathering" in Gaelic) of unprecedented size and a theme in tune with its roots: "Harp & Fiddles."

The North Texas Irish Festival celebrates the music of the Emerald Isle by featuring many of the top Irish musicians and dancers in the world, as well as cultural presentations on 9 stages.

Hours, Admission and Location: Gates open on Friday evening, March 2, at 6 p.m. Hours are 6 to 11 p.m. on Friday; Saturday, March 3 from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m.; and Sunday, March 4 from 11:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. Admission is FREE on Friday from 6 to 7 p.m. For more information, visit www.ntif.org
